

Seaton House School Newsletter

For the week ending: Friday 16th September, 2016

Dear Parents

I would like to give my heartfelt thanks to all the parents who braved the sweltering temperatures and attended the Autumn Get Together last night. Despite juggling difficulties of childcare, work, other commitments at siblings' schools etc, many of you worked miracles and got here! I hope that you took my words with the spirit in which it was intended - our daughters are our greatest treasures and we need to prepare them in all possible ways for the world in which they are growing up in - one which is so different from our own childhoods. The high standards that Seaton House sets and achieves in our academic curriculum are not compromised by the pastorally strong ethos that we, as a school, are developing. Have a good weekend.
