

Seaton House School Newsletter

For the week ending: Friday 14th October, 2016

Dear Parents

This week saw the celebration of the festival of Navratri (the Festival of Nine nights) taking place for many of our Hindu families - I hope that this was enjoyed by them. It was also the week for commemorating Ashura for many of our Muslim families. Today we celebrated our own Maths Enrichment Day, which all the Junior House and Senior House pupils participated in. I hope they will be able to tell you something of the activities that they engaged in. We are not far away from the half term break and I hope that you are able to keep your daughters focused and motivated until the end. It can be a challenge after a long seven week term. I hope you enjoy a peaceful weekend.

Letter from the Queen

FII were very honoured and excited to receive a reply to the cards and birthday wishes that they sent to the Queen earlier this year. The Queen's Lady-in-Waiting wrote a lovely letter to our pupils and also sent a photograph of Her Majesty.

Poppy Appeal - Remembrance Sunday 13th November, 2016

Mandy Jenkins, our Poppy Appeal coordinator, will be bringing in poppies and other related merchandise to sell to pupils after half term in order to raise funds for the Royal British Legion. If your daughter would like to buy a poppy during the week commencing 7th November, please make sure she has some money - the suggested minimum donation for a poppy is 50p.

Mandy is still in desperate need for collectors in Sutton and surrounding areas for this year's Appeal which runs from 29th October through till 12th November. If you would like to volunteer, please call her on the number below.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them.

Lest we forget

Second Hand School Uniform

As you are all aware, we changed into winter uniform on Monday 3rd October. If you would like to purchase any second hand uniform, please get in touch with me on zoebradnum@btconnect.com. Pinafores are currently on sale at 2 for £15 (£10 each individually). I will also have a stall at the forthcoming disco.

As mentioned at the Autumn get-together, Posh is currently looking for someone to take over the 2nd hand uniform as my daughter will leave at the end of this academic year. If you think you can help, please email me at the above address.

Many Thanks
Zoe
