

Seaton House School Newsletter

For the week ending: Friday 16th December, 2016

Dear Parents

The longest term of the year (13 weeks!) has finally come to an end. The past week has seen many of us laid low with colds and other bugs that save their appearance for the Christmas holidays! The Christmas Carol Service on Wednesday was another musical triumph; I would like to thank all staff and pupils for their hard work - it certainly paid off. Thanks also to Mrs Evans, our Chair of Governors, who stepped in to cover my absence. I would also like to thank all the girls and their families for their gifts and cards - your kindness and generosity has been wonderful and is so appreciated by us all.

Mrs Morrison
Headteacher

I wish you all a blessed and peaceful Christmas and New Year.
